

Conduct Policy

revised April 28, 2019

Los Padres Ski Club (LPSC) expects that members show respect to fellow members, observe common courtesy, and exhibit accepted standards of behavior.

All members are expected to treat other members in an environment free of harassment, hostility and discrimination as defined by Federal, state and local laws and regulations. Members must not display obnoxious, hostile or offensive behavior.

Participants who display obnoxious or offensive behavior in violation of this conduct policy, as determined by the LPSC event representative, may be removed and/or isolated from the group.

A participant whose intentional hostile, harassing or violent behavior injures others or damages property will be held liable for any financial consequences of said behavior. Failure to comply may result in exclusion from future LPSC sponsored activities.

Illegal use of drugs, tobacco or alcohol at club events is cause for removal from an event. LPSC may also choose, for the benefit of all participants, to prohibit smoking, drugs and/or alcohol at certain events.

Members shall adhere to the requirements of the LPSC event packages and not transfer, resell or barter all or portions of the package. Only LPSC or the issuing agency may compensate the participant for the unused portion or transfer.

LPSC will not reimburse a participant for any forfeited payments due to violation of this policy.

The LPSC Board of Directors may choose to expel members from LPSC who violate this Code of Conduct.
